IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

3. Principles on Copyrights

JAMT seeks to retain copyright of the articles it publishes, without the author giving up their right to use their own materials. Authors are not required to seek permission to re-use their own work. As an author you can use your paper in part or in full, including figures and tables (except where copyright is owned by a third party, in which case you must seek permission again) if you want to do so in a book, in another article written for us or another publisher, on your website, or any other use, without asking us first. We believe that this copyright policy benefits our authors by ensuring that we can:

- i. Develop our electronic publications and their delivery to meet customer needs and create maximum dissemination of authors' work.
- ii. Protect authors' moral rights and their work from plagiarism, unlawful copying and any other infringement of copyright.
- iii. Provide an efficient service for permissions.

In a case whereby there is more than one author, please complete the following as appropriate, if necessary please photocopy this page and return it with the rest of the documents:

The inclusion of your email address will expedite the publication process.
